Graduation Rates &Totals – 100%, 150%, & 200% of Normal Time

Fall 2015

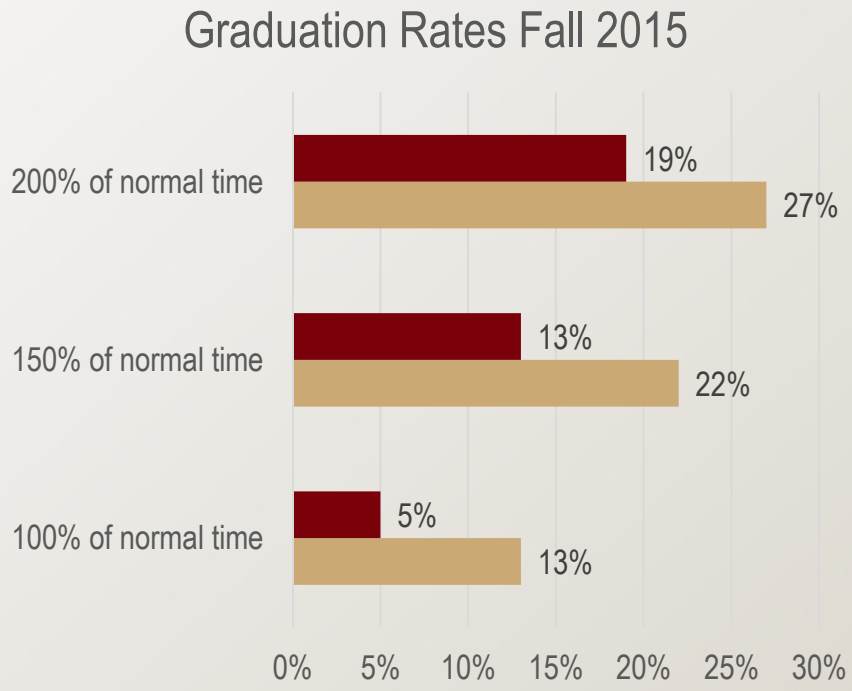
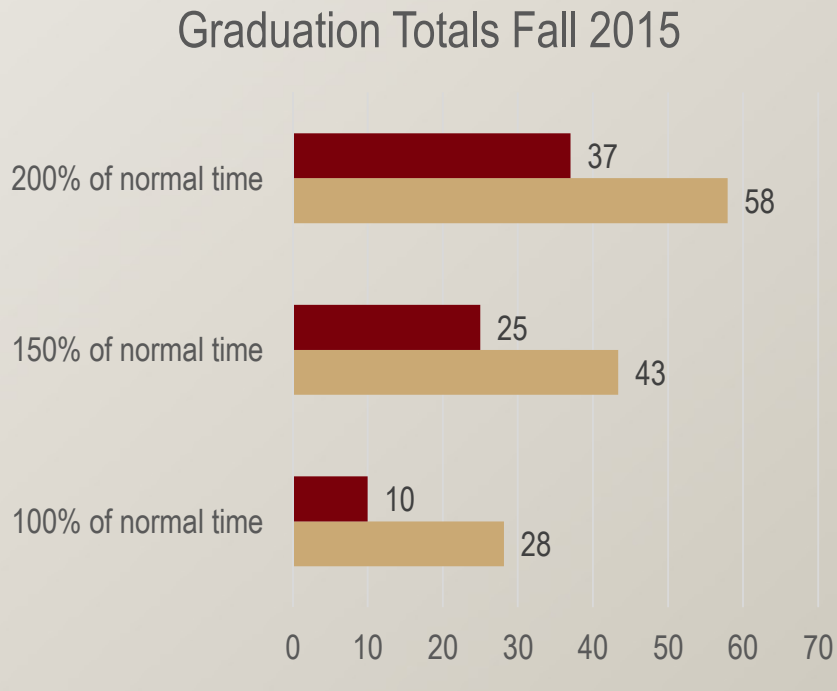
SouthArk

Comparison Group Median (N=13)

*Fall 2011 Cohort contains first time/full time students beginning in the fall 2011 semester. 200% graduation rate is determined by completion of a degree or certificate within 200% of expected time, i.e. 4 years for an associate degree. 150% graduation rate is determined by completion of a degree or certificate within 150% of expected time, i.e. 3 years for an associate degree. 100% graduation rate is determined by completion of a degree or certificate within 100% of expected time, i.e. 2 years for an associate degree.





SOURCE: U.S. Department of Education, National Center for Education Statistics, Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS)