Nontax Filers:

All INDEPENDENT nontax-filers must provide proof of non-filing.

- If a student filed the FAFSA as independent (not using parent information) and didn't file taxes in 2018, they will have to turn in proof of non-filing as detailed below.
- If a student who filed the FAFSA as a dependent (using parent information), and their parent didn't file tax information, the students parent(s) will have to turn in proof of non-filing as detailed below.

Non-filers must provide a confirmation of non-filing dated on or after October 1, 2019. A confirmation of non-filing can be obtained from the IRS using Form 4506-T and checking box 7or by registering online at <https://www.irs.gov/individuals/get-transcript>. If unable to obtain verification of non-filing from the IRS, the non-tax filer can submit a signed statement certifying that they attempted to obtain confirmation, but was unable to obtain the required documentation. For non-tax filers, the statement must also confirm that they have not filed and are not required to file a tax return for the relevant year, and it must list sources and amounts of any income earned from work.

Verification of 2018 Income for Individuals with Unusual Circumstances

Individuals Who Filed an Amended IRS Income Tax Return

An individual who filed an amended IRS income tax return for tax year 2018 must provide:

- A signed copy of the 2018 IRS Form 1040X, “Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return,” that was filed with IRS; AND
- A 2018 Tax Return Transcript (that will only include information from the original tax return); or
- a signed copy of the 2018 income tax return and applicable schedules; or
- IRS DRT information on an ISIR record with all tax information from the original tax return. (DRT Flags 02 or 07)

Individuals Who Were Victims of IRS Tax-Related Identity Theft

A victim of IRS identity theft who has been unable to obtain a 2018 IRS Tax Return Transcript or use the IRS DRT must provide:

- A Tax Return DataBase View (TDRBV) transcript obtained from the IRS, or if unable to obtain a TRDBV, an equivalent document provided by the IRS or a copy of the signed 2018 income tax return and applicable schedules the individual filed with the IRS; AND
- A statement signed and dated by the tax filer indicating that he or she was victim of IRS tax-related identity theft and the IRS is aware of the tax-related identity theft.

Individuals Who Filed Non-IRS Income Tax Returns

A tax filer who filed an income tax return with a tax authority other than the IRS may provide a signed copy of his or her income tax return that was filed with a relevant tax authority. However, if we question the accuracy of the information on the signed copy of the income tax return, the tax filer must provide us with a copy of the tax account information issued by the relevant tax authority before verification can be completed.
